Hurt

B.o.B

The closer that you get,
The closer that you get to me,
That's just a road than gon' hurt you.

I know I've said some shit,
I know I said some shit I don't mean,
But girl we know that's what words do.

Your body says it first, (your body says it first)
So when you open up your lips to speak,
Just know I already heard you.

I told you I ain't shit,
But still you wanna be with me,
We both know I don't deserve you,
I'm only gon' hurt you.

I'm not gon' change for you, you can't fix me cause I'm not broken,
But you develop feelings let's put the real in the open, you could,
Give me your heart, that still don't mean that I own it its like walking the line between logic and our emotions, I don't,
Know why the stories always the same,
Two people fall in love til' they go separate ways.
I'm savaged by nature so blame my creator,
So much pussy thrown at me I need a coordinator.
Eh, every girl thinks shes the 100th girl that I slept with when I ain't even got enough time to check all my messages,
Look, I grew up around woman so I never felt the need to rush and get settled down with em.
I don't speak for all men I speak for me,
So you don't commit your life to someone who ain't gonna keep it a G.
Embrace the good, bad and ugly cause there's certain shit in this man that just can't adjusted I know,
The truth is like alcohol,
You think you can handle it til' you can't stand at all.
Tryna' manage with a damaged heart,
If every nigga ain't shit then who's at fault,
We both know what we hear to do,
I get my bluntness is offending you,
I guess I'm young and hypocritical,
I want the sex but not the spiritual residue.
And you want something magical,
Cartoon and fairytales, conditions to what come natural, out of touch with the actual, using sex is collateral, confusion often occurs when ones on release[?] or incompatible.

Fights all the time,
You say you fine,
I know you lyin'
It's on your mind,
And I ain't blind,
I often find,
You don't have to cut the knife I guess I'm tired of lying.

The closer that you get,
The closer that you get to me,

That's just a road than gon' hurt you.

I know I've said some shit,
I know I said some shit I don't mean,
But girl we know that's what words do.

Your body says it first, (your body says it first)
So when you open up your lips to speak,
Just know I already heard you.

I told you I ain't shit,
But still you wanna be with me,
We both know I don't deserve you,
I'm only gon' hurt you.
