I get angry just thinking about it makes me mad. Little kids doing drugs, it turns my stomach. That stuff hurts. It stops you from living up to your pot ential. It holds you back. It hurts the user. It hurts his family. And it hurts his friends. I just wanna shake some sense into you kids that are using drugs and thinking about using. So remember, don't, or else. Okay? Okay. Don't do what I do mayne. Everybody can't be Bobby Ray mayne. You gott a get that real shit bruh. If that shit ain't come from LA [?] I'm Michael Jordan. Don't do drugs. If you're doing it, stop it Is there anyone out there who still ain't clear what doing drugs does?
