

Set Da Scene

B.o.B

Let me set the scene
It's always people that love you the most, that judge you the most (right, right, right)
It's always people that love you the most, that judge you the most (right, right, right)

I don't dislike you
I just don't like the vibes you keep around you
It's guilt by association, it ain't even about you
Always tryna fix the world and fix yourself
Mr. Health, Mr. Diet
Mrs. Nature, even nature steals the matrix
Transmutation, elevation
When you put people on, but can't get them on the phone
I still ain't jaded
That's the game, that's just today
That's how we play it
Them people ain't set you up you just wanna expect and retaliation
Niggas be tryna argue, niggas be tryna fight
Niggas tryna debate, it's a waste of nigga time
Whether you believe
Is it info?
Is it crypto?
Is it wealth?
Is it yourself?
(Is it yourself?)

Let me set the scene
Yeah, I'm rolling up green
In the back of a stretch limousine
Let me set the scene
Couple models on the team
It's gon' let a real nigga in-between
Let me set the scene
I've been ballin' since a teen
I'm the one they pick, then they set the screen
Let me set the scene
They ain't always what they seem
But with me, I'm the best they ever seen
Let me set the

Met met me, knew the time when she met me
I made her ocean wave, she wet as an estuary
The sun even tryna see that sundress
While it's setting
Hop up breaking her bed sheets
Stretching right cheek to left cheek
I'm suplexing, no wrestling
She tap out, Cupid confetti
See I, don't run in circles
These boys, must got two left feet

Let, let me convey emotions so effortlessly
The thoughts I'm expressing, could be Taken out of context, if not deciphered correctly (ha-ha)
Technically that could stress me
Opinions just don't affect me (ya bitch)

I rather talk about that nestle
You smuggling inside them leggings (you thick) (ha-ha)
I won't like her if she's too messy
She way too pretty and skilled to be that aggressively petty, in life
You handled your business definitely
You and your bestie just blessed me
I thought I'd tell you directly

Let me set the scene
Yeah, I'm rolling up green
In the back of a stretch limousine
Let me set the scene
Couple models on the team
