Aye
They looking nervous
Than a sweat lodge
But Picture me Yosemite BoB
Jumping out black
Apache helicopters
Like Geronimo
Never been a Squanto
You faker than a Tonto

Aye
My soul I'm older than them pyramids
Next to me You be appearing mid
Flow so hot Yucatán wit it
They calling me the goat
It's unanimous
Next lifetime
Now I'm back again
Why 'cause I couldn't be eliminated
21st century
Now we all assimilated
Dick up in the simulation
Tryna get it stimulated

I ain't tryna brush up with you
I ain't looking for another plug nigga
For fourth ward nigga
And my Discord nigga
If I'm on tour nigga
It's a encore nigga

That's why we fucked up
This country fucked up
They killed your ancestors
And murdered all your brothers

Yea

There was something special bout that place
And I tapped into something much
Something more than I could explain

They calling me the goat
It's unanimous
You are now the witness
It's America scheduled for demolition
Every empire falls word to the British
It's time to resign that's Mitch Dementia

A recession, a plague
Rebellions and rage
Inflation and murder
The future looks vague
This country was built off of greed
The land of the frees
Now the land of the slaves
