

Right Now

B. Smyth

Say my name, say it while you on the phone
Say it, say it
Say my name, say it while you on the phone

Your bullshit done caught up with you
This time I'll be losing you
This ain't what you do
This shit is unusual
You on some weak shit right now
You not at your house, read on
Now, right now, you better have a read
You know you tweakin' now, this ain't

Say my name, say it while you on the phone
Say it, say it
Say my name, say it while you on the phone
Yeah, ugh
Say my name, say my name, baby girl
Say a nigga name on the phone

Shawty, what you mean, saying, leave you alone?
Girl, I'm 'bout to pull up
Let me know when you home
What you mean no or you ain't going home?
Something going on I can feel it through the phone
I can feel the mood that you in kinda strong
You acting like you ain't alone
The energy I feel real heavy
The pictures that I'm painting real sketchy
Since when you wanna start acting petty
Thought a grown woman never act messy
The energy I feel too heavy
The pictures that I'm painting too sketchy
Since when you wanna start being petty
If you ain't around nobody else
Lil' mama all you gotta do is

Say my name, say it while you on the phone
Say it, say it
Say my name, say it while you on the phone

Now, right now, you better have a reason
You know you tweaking now, this ain't
