

Distant

B Young

Baby don't you be so distant
I'm just tryna see your vision
Like the sunshine you glisten
Really got me feeling different
You don't have to feel no way no way
You can hit me up all day all day
Baby you don't need permission

Oh yeah yeah

Baby I'll fight to the end of the world
Hmm ah eh ah
As long as it takes girl this time cannot tell
Hmm yeah
I love how you drink and you come out your shell
Hmm ah eh ah
Baby I don't see no shame in that

Baby don't you be so distant
I'm just tryna see your vision
Like the sunshine you glisten
Really got me feeling different
You don't have to feel no way no way
You can hit me up all day all day
Baby you don't need permission

Oh yeah yeah

You know whos on my mind baby you know it's just you
You say I'm the same as them man girl you don't have clue
Ooh ah ohh
Baby there's nothing that I wouldn't want to go through
I'll do it all just so I wouldn't be without you
Oh yeah yeah

Baby don't you be so distant
I'm just tryna see your vision
Like the sunshine you glisten
Really got me feeling different
You don't have to feel no way no way
You can hit me up all day all day
Baby you don't need permission

Oh yeah yeah

Baby don't you be so distant
I'm just tryna see your vision
Like the sunshine you glisten
Really got me feeling different
You don't have to feel no way no way
You can hit me up all day all day
Baby you don't need permission

Oh yeah yeah
