

Lightwork

B Young

Ooh Girl
What they say must be true girl
You don't need no more proof girl
From the way that you, move girl you move girl that's lightwork
Feel some type, I feel some type of way
Wine your waist girl show the night away
I've been about there is no finer place
You love the chase I want to taste

I gotta find that
Cause no word can define you
Hmm
You're the one I can't lie to
Hmm
No girl can't outshine you
When you just make it all look so easy
No word can describe you
Hmm
You're the one I can't lie to
Hmm
No girl can't outshine you
When you just make it all look so easy

Left right baby left right
Any side that's your best side
Girl we can go for a test drive
Yeah if you're tryna live your best life
I just love how you go wine up your waist
You love attention yeah baby don't play
Losing my words girl you play with my brain
I don't know what else to say
Cause I see you and there ain't no girl that's badder than
But I can tell I'm not your only fan
See you're getting pree'd by a bag of man
You know I'ma take my time

I gotta find out
Yeah
Cause no word can define you
Hmm
You're the one I can't lie to
Hmm
No girl can't outshine you
When you just make it all look so easy
No word can describe you
Hmm

Hmm
No girl can't outshine you
When you just make it all look so easy

Girl you make it look easy
You know I love when you're needy
Like baby come breed me
