

Word For Word

B Young

Now baby don't you go running back
Coz only you could free from this trap
Don't you give them any satisfaction
You said yourself you're done with all the cappin

And I know you been dreaming of some better days
Holding onto memories
Hoping you can numb the pain

And you've been lifting all this heavy weight
You're strong enough to turn the page
Finally you're center stage

And they'll sing along with you, word for word
Yeah they'll sing along with you, word for word
Baby I'll ride along the distance
For what it takes to find what's missing
And I'll sing along with you, word for word

Now baby don't you go running back
Coz you can fix it but you'll see the cracks
Don't you ever feel like you been locked in
Coz baby you got all these other options

And you've been feeling just to get away
But freedom makes you feel ashamed
This love has turned you to a slave

But baby fuck it we can celebrate
Let's raise a toast to broken chains
You're finally on center stage

And they'll sing along with you, word for word
Yeah they'll sing along with you, word for word
Baby I'll ride along the distance
For what it takes to find what's missing
And I'll sing along with you, word for word

Mhmmm mhmmm mhmmm mhmmm mhmmm mhmmm

And they'll sing along with you, word for word
Yeah they'll sing along with you, word for word
Baby I'll ride along the distance
For what it takes to find what's missing
And I'll sing along with you, word for word
