Where am I?
What am I chasing after?
This air that wraps around us
Makes me forget the dreams
I had as a child
I'm in the same place but time changes me
I haven't changed but the world changes me
A little slower, like a child
So I can feel it
Like a child, yeah
Like a butterfly on a flower path
So I can rest
Time, wait for me, yeah
I don't wanna run
I wanna walk slowly on a flower path

Why are you going so fast?
What's the rush?
I don't wanna run, let's go slowly
Every day
We're living that life
I want to look at things with the eyes of a child

Like a child, like those times
Can't we go back?
Like a child, like the wind back then
Can't we go back?

I wanna ask myself again
Have you lost your dream?
I've been running, only looking at my feet
One day, I looked up to the sky
And it seemed like my heart

Time goes so fast
The day is already past, the sunset is red
If I think about it
I'm already saying goodbye to the me of yesterday
I know it's a fact
But time won't stop just because I tell it to stop
It's a meaningless fight
I'm the same but time changes me
It's alright, I'll spread my wings like a child

Why are you going so fast?
What's the rush?
I don't wanna run, let's go slowly
Every day
We're living that life
I want to look at things with the eyes of a child

Like a child, like those times
Can't we go back?
Like a child, like the wind back then
Can't we go back?

Like a child, like those times
Can't we go back?
Like a child, like the wind back then
Can't we go back?
