I never knew how nice it was
To be called "oppa"
It's just a word but
I keep feeling good
I never understood the older hyungs
Who went crazy over the word "oppa"

From the shape of the mouth to the sound
It even makes me wonder how this kind of word exists

In my life, I heard it
Thousands of times till I got sick of it
But because you're saying it
I feel like I became a cool guy

I wanna pretend I didn't hear you
So you can call me once again
I'm holding back my laughter
What's so great about this word?

My day was just whatever
I was tired of everything, I was going crazy
It was a day where
Neither coffee nor energy vitamins worked

But it's funny, I'm so strange
The moment you called me with a smile
I gain strength and I start to smile
I can't hide my feelings

In my life, I heard it
Thousands of times till I got sick of it
But because you're saying it
I feel like I became a cool guy

I wanna pretend I didn't hear you
So you can call me once again
I'm holding back my laughter
What's so great about this word?

Everything is so special
Everything has changed
From the day you called me

It's special because it's you
I wanna hear it all my life
Stay by my side, just like now, my baby

I wanna pretend I didn't hear you
So you can call me once again
I'm holding back my laughter
What's so great about this word?

I wanna pretend I didn't hear you

I'm holding back my laughter
What's so great about this word?
