No matter what kind of sky we're under
No matter what kind of city we live in
We are connected
Now that I understand that, I'm not going to hesitate anymore
Your smile is always
Shining in my heart
The miracle of us meeting is because you are here
Since I can become stronger it'll be all right

Knock knock knock knock on the future
Stand stand stand stand up once more
Oh you and I, I believe it
Well then, let's walk together

Look, an unbreakable bond
Is right here, everlasting love
The story of two people start
I wonder what kind of future
Will continue to reveal itself in the sky

The sleepless nights where I anxiously wish and tremble
It's even painful right now
After coming in contact with your heart
Even though it didn't work yesterday, I can still appreciate it

Your smile is always
Shining in my heart
The path I'm walking on, a dream that doesn't end
I'm going to paint you, alright, be with you

Knock knock knock knock on the future
Stand stand stand stand up once more
Oh you and I, I believe it
Well then, let's walk together

Look, an unbreakable bond
Is right here, everlasting love
The story of two people start
I wonder what kind of future
Will continue to reveal itself in the sky

I realized it
Even the tears I've cried are a rainbow smile

I'm by your side
Stay by my side
Through good times and bad
Together we will laugh and cry

Knock knock knock knock on the future
Try try try try to once more
Oh you and I, I believe it
Well then, let's walk together

Look, an unbreakable bond
Is right here, everlasting love
The story of two people start
I wonder what kind of future
Will continue to reveal itself in the sky
