

You got that look in your eye like you wanna get something started
Hop in the whip and then slide to the crib for the afterparty
There ain't no reason to be acting shy if this what you wanted
I ain't the guy that gon' feed you lies so I can push up on it

Straight up
I'm trying to fuck with you
Straight up
Say that you heard I'm a player
Truth this is not my intention to play ya
So if it's cool just say ya (Yeah)
Because I need to know you're certain
Before I put this work in
I don't need you saying that you're nervous

Need you to know
I'll take it slow
And go as far as you wanna go
Don't be nervous
I'll take my time
And get it right
Before I put it in you like
Tell me you ain't nervous

Girl, I need to know
Girl, I need to know that you ain't nervous
Girl, I need to know
Girl, I need to know that you ain't nervous
Girl, I need to know
Girl, I need to know that you ain't nervous
Need to know that you ain't nervous
Ain't no reason to be nervous

Palm sweating, got the room spinning and your legs shaking
I'm trying to relax you like a chiropractor, have your back breaking
Baby, this ain't nothing to be scared of, just some love making
Come and catch a vibe till I have you vibrating (No cap)

Straight up
I'm trying to fuck with you
Straight up
Say that you heard I'm a player
Truth this is not my intention to play ya
