Still Think About You (Straight Up)

Know it's been awhile since we met like this
Been a minute since I felt your kiss
I ain't afraid to admit
Lately I've been reminiscing
So hard to forget
You in my arms you would lay there for hours
Top of the morning we meet in the shower
Remember how wet you would get
You said I was the best that exist

All night all day I feel a way girl
I still think about you
No lie girl I miss your touch
Can't nobody do it like you do (straight up)
All night all day I feel a way girl
I still think about you
No lie girl I miss your touch
Can't nobody do it like you do (straight up)

If memory serves me correctly
Girl we were in love once
And that just don't go away (no way yeah)

Touching you in public
Girl you used to love it
Every time I hit your line
You used to come and buss it (baby)
Really used to drive each other crazy
(Ooh lately)

All night all day I feel a way girl
I still think about you
No lie girl I miss your touch
Can't nobody do it like you do (straight up)
All night all day I feel a way girl
I still think about you
No lie girl I miss your touch
Can't nobody do it like you do (straight up)

Straight up
Tell me what the business
Tryna talk about your feelings
Just to put you in 'em
Girl cause all this reminiscing
Got me sentimental
Now I'm thinking bout them jeans
And how you fitting in them
Cause you still looking right
And we still got a vibe
And I'm still thinking bout you every day every night
Tryna chill later so what you got going on
To be real with you
I'm just tryna have you moaning

To be truthful and perfectly honest
I can't see myself nowhere beyond us
Cause this is where I'm supposed to be

Needed some time to grow and see
That you got everything I could need
And your body got me weak in the knees
I ain't afraid to beg and plead
Baby please
Stay with me

All night all day I feel a way girl
I still think about you
No lie girl I miss your touch
Can't nobody do it like you do (straight up)
All night all day I feel a way girl
I still think about you
No lie girl I miss your touch
Can't nobody do it like you do (straight up)
