

Sweet, Sweet Surrender

Babe Ruth

It's been such a long time you played with my heart and made me fall in love with you

I had such a hard time you layed me on the ground and let my feelings run away
with you

I know what you're doing to me
I know that it's real
I know what you're doing to me
'cause it's so let me hold you close

Please don't decieve me
I won't believe you but now I ain't so sure that your true hopefully believing I gave you my love and i thought that you would give me yours too

I know what you're doing to me
I know that it's real
'cause it's so let me hold you close

Sweet sweet surrender
I know you've got it coming to you
I can see it in you eyes
when you give ????????????????

And now that it's over the affair that we had was one way and i need and i need something too I really don't need you for someone who treats me so bad ain't never gonna get me through

I know what you're doing to me
I know that it's real
'cause it's so let me hold you close

Sweet sweet surrender
I know you've got it coming to you
when you give ????????????????

Sweet sweet surrender
I know you've got it coming to you
when you give ????????????????

Sweet sweet surrender

oh Sweet sweet surrender
I know you've got it coming to you
