

Finally

Baby Bash

I found a real one (real one)
Finally (finally)
Somebody to ride for
Finally
You're the one, girl (the one)
I still can't believe
That it's love (no I can't)
I still can't believe it

Baby girl, it's been a long time coming
Finally figured out that I need some real loving
Too many wasted days on them streets, I was running
With you in my life, I love the man I'm becoming
I was out late night chasing skirts and high heels
Got 'em doing everything, even paying my bills
Big time player, never knew how love feels
Did it for the cloud, bullshit and cheap thrills

And now I'm gonna live my life wifed up
And be with the only woman that I love
The shit I been through, the only girl I trust
You finally came through to satisfy my touch

I found a real one (real one)
Finally (finally)
Somebody to ride for
Finally
You're the one, girl (the one)
I still can't believe
That it's love (no I can't)
I still can't believe it

Always on my mind, girl I need you right now
Don't listen to these lames, better tell 'em pipe down
Baby girl you know you looking flawless, yeah
Tell me what you want 'cause I'm hauling
You're the one, yeah baby, I'm on it (okay)
I need you there when I wake up in the morning (yeah)
Breakfast in bed, you wake up looking gorgeous
I can't get enough, ya body [?]

We can take our time (our time)
No need to rush (don't rush)
Baby it's just us
This is love (this is love)
Baby girl, you're mine (you're mine)
I need your touch (your touch)
Baby, it's just us
This is love, yeah (this is love)

I found a real one (real one)
Finally (finally)
Somebody to ride for
Finally
You're the one, girl (the one)
I still can't believe
That it's love (no I can't)

I still can't believe it
