When you're caught in the lights
Life becomes a stage
That's one hell of a price
Most times we get judged by the public
Watching every step
Cheering each fall is humbling
In VIP and all movement stops
Cause everybody came to see the bottles that pop pop pop
We all crave
The glitz and the glamor
The pretty chicks vogue every time they see a camera
Baby get in a picture with me
You might make an appearance on TMZ
Not being cocky I'm just telling the truth
If you want to be a critic take your place in the queue
Sponsors advertise me
People recognize me
A lot of people love me but haters do despise me
The life of a public personality
The burden of a star is that we always fighting gravity

And I don't even got time to go shopping today
I got a pool party down on Vegas popping today
And when I step into the building they'll be watching my play
That's what it is in the biz ain't no stopping today
I'm on the first thang smoking
First thang in the morning
Beat it up good like you was one of my opponents
Touchdown
Ten toes in the arena
Touchdown
Can't see me or be me like John Cena
Adios I'm ghost I got to hit the next city
Where the lights are bright and the girls they look pretty
Touchdown
Floating like its three wheel motion
Touchdown
Some people make it
And some just keep hoping

When you're among the stars
Don't drift too far
Hey for what it's worth
You better stay down to earth
We bask in it cause we love to be cheered
Can't bitch cause we begged to be here
Fifteen minutes on the clock and it's ticking
The spotlights so addicting
