

Phantom

Baby Goth

Waiting for you
Always, waiting for you
You are nowhere near
I still feel you here
When did you
Fade into the dark
Give me a flicker
My little glimmer
Cling to your whisper
Living for the taste of your spark

You can be my Phantom
This will be the anthem
For all the fallen lovers
Wandering abandoned
Holding my heart at ransom
Dreams of our fallen kingdom
Still haunt my thoughts at night
You were my dark but you were also my light
La la la la, you were my light
La la la la, my phantom in the night
Your spirit haunts my mind
La la la la, you were my light
La la la la, my Phantom in the night
You faded from my sight

You will always
You will always be
The one for me, you are part of me
No matter
How far apart, how deep the spectre
How far we wander, Our souls will hear eachother
Always together even when we're apart

You can be my Phantom
This will be the anthem
For all the fallen lovers
Wandering abandoned
Holding my heart at ransom
Dreams of our fallen kingdom
Still haunt my thoughts at night
You were my dark but you were also my light
La la la la, you were my light
La la la la, my phantom in the night
Your spirit haunts my mind
La la la la, you were my light
La la la la, my Phantom in the night

You can be my Phantom
This will be the anthem
Wandering abandoned
Still haunt my thoughts at night

You were my dark but you were also my light
La la la la, you were my light
La la la la, my phantom in the night
Your spirit haunts my mind
La la la la, you were my light
La la la la, my Phantom in the night
