Gotta keep my circle small, lil' bruh might not be who he say
Gotta pinpoint the new faces, most of them niggas fake
I done been through way too much, BK prevail, why would I save?
KJ the one, you chosen, my pops told me he proud
I thought you was gon' crash, I'm glad you found a better route
Axu stole my wave, no more hot guns allowed
Put a Draco in her name, now I got the right to blow a nigga do

Still tryna live my life, one day we all will die
But until the end, I'm gon' rock out, bitch, that's on Jesus Ch

Stackin' my pape', stayin' out the way
Gotta keep my circle small, lil' bruh might not be who he say
Gotta pinpoint the new faces, most of them niggas fake
I done been through way too much, BK prevail, why would I save?
KJ the one, you chosen, my pops told me he proud
