And you can see the pain all in my eyes
I can't explain everything I seen in my life
Taking pills 'cause they helping me with the pain
Pouring drank 'cause it's helping stay the same
When everybody changed
I stayed the same when everybody changed

Have the night of yo' life if you come hang with me
I'm the one who performing, I don't show no ID
Yeah, security look tip 'cause I came with glocky
I'll pop a nigga melon if he play with my cheese
I know she ain't lettin' me fuck, she just doing a 'lil tease
I'll takeoff on a jet if I use a red key
'Lil cookie, 'lil Fanta, mix it with a 'lil lean
And this is half of a choppa, still make a whole scene
I be all in her ribs, I can make the hoe sing
Push me back a 'lil bit, singing out the whole thing
I just bought a whole pint, still want more lean
OT with no drugs, dawg start sniffing things
You the type to get caught, tell on the whole team
Saks Fifth for the shoes 'cause I'm so proud of me
We gone knock dawg off, we don't want apologies
Big seven-six-twos, long as a centipede
You got some money, they gone treat you different
These niggas cappin' when they all sneak dissin'
I got some killers, I forgot to mention
I got some money, I can show my riches

And you can see the pain all in my eyes
I can't explain everything I seen in my life
Taking pills 'cause they helping me with the pain
Pouring drank 'cause it's helping stay the same
When everybody changed
I stayed the same when everybody changed
Everywhere I go they knowing my name
These niggas act weird 'cause of fame
I ain't switch up, I stayed in my lane
Yo nigga broke, he was pawning his chain

Got money, I can help out the bank
I got money I can buy all the drank
She a 'lil innocent but she ain't a saint
Too many bitches, not one of 'em I claim

And you can see the pain all in my eyes
I can't explain everything I seen in my life
Taking pills 'cause they helping me with the pain
Pouring drank 'cause it's helping stay the same
When everybody changed
I stayed the same when everybody changed
Everywhere I go they knowing my name
These niggas act weird 'cause of fame
I ain't switch up, I stayed in my lane
Yo nigga broke, he was pawning his chain
