

Enrgy made this one!

You can split your last with them, and they still be unappreciating
I been shitting for too long, I know them bitch niggas still [?]
I'm really living how I want, when I was a kid, knew that I was winning
I got an icy ass neck, take yo life if you try to take it
I got six cars, they can't even all fit in my house
I love my bitch to death, but I'm cheating on my spouse
Bitch you know I'm rich as hell, made ten M's off my couch
I just left the steakhouse, when I leave, they take a bow
But my steaks be white cuda, that's a different type of clout
He got hit up with a drac, that's a different type of ouch
Serving bags in high school, I done started with an ounce
Got a switchy, 50 racks in my Goyard pouch
I been getting real money, need to take notes and learn
Head tap 'em with a .40, that shit hotter than a perm
He ain't even got no money, he ain't even trying to earn
Get the roll for the shows and them blacked out Suburbans
Yeah I don't sip drank, so the drank sip me
Yeah I'm thinking 'bout you, put your name on the back of my screen
The last time we was together, you ain't even say you had to leave
Think about you all the time, know you got me in your dream
I really split my last, I done gave niggas bags
Niggas called just for favors, some called just to laugh
And don't compare me to no nigga who dick sucking all these rappers
And niggas know I'm baby bottle, I got Marni on my pants
Niggas fresh as hell broke, they be moving ass
Niggas fresh as hell broke, they be moving ass backwards
If that bitch tampered with, swear to God you can have her
Once you take another dick, you can delete her whole chapter
Do 160 in the Urus, I'll never ever crash her
Shit comparing me to him? That's like Dior versus Thrasher
Shit my money long as hell like from Van Dyke to Lahser

Yeah

I'm a Young Rich
I'm a Young Rich Bastard
I'm a Young Rich Bastard
I'm a Young Rich
