With all that being said, do you have any regrets about any of it?
No. Absolutely not.
It's nothing that I would change, I wouldn't
Yes
God's been good to me

Sometimes you lose your loved one
Told him you ain't really had time cause you booked & busy
Out here running after money you can't take it with you
Yeah
Family reunions out here taking pictures
I know we blood but it's been a minute
Last time that you seen me I done turned this shit up
On your mental how you really feelin'
My mama still in her feelings blame it on the liquor
She said for 61 years she been stuck in Michigan
Used to have big dreams then it all ended
You got pregnant with my brother had to switch the vision
And my nephews is the purest treat em' like my siblings
You would think he learned from me I hate that nigga...
Expensive watches diamonds shining you just ain't that simple
Pistol on me while I'm ridin' niggas plottin' to get you
Couple pros on my bus while I'm out here dippin'
Couple hoes want to fuck her like I'm pitchin'
It's like I know what they want
But I just mind my own play the game
Let em go with they flow
Be careful with them genes
If you know then you know
If I can go back with this knowledge I had more than before
Fuck a check up on designer but my life still broke
On that syrup fuck your credit boy you gettin' too old
The best number around we loaded up on this here
That's for personal use a rich junkie for real
I miss fucked her I heard she got a kid
A couple blessings on blessings
I put them bitches in cribs
I put them bets on myself
If I lose it is what it is
If they had it in they size I'd put my kids in Amiri
My nigga had his hand out I had to put some game in his ear
I hit the door had to run cause its money raining in here
Same money
Same life I just ain't famous
Got a brand new benz I'm out here thankful
I know you heard money talk it ain't a thang that we said
And a perk can't even fix the pain that I'm in Double XL cause they say cause I'm changin' the game
White platty this the Patty this ain't the stainless on my wrist
I'm the plug best friend put a thang on his head
And I brought the Wock out
Man I'm stayin' on red

Woah, woah, woah
Yeah, yeah
