

Whatever

Babyface

Oooo, Monday I don't feel it, wanna give you my attention but it's hard
Tuesday I'm just movin, for I lose it, boy you bet not piss her off
Ooo ooo, Wednesday's hit or miss, I'm back on the fence, don't know what you'll get
But thirsty Thursday leading up to Friday, party up in my place

Whatever you want, I love it when the weekend comes
However you want, that's when I'm gon give you some
If you make me say, oh oh oh, oh oh oh
You can have whatever you like
Whatever you want
Thirsty Thursdays, seconds on Friday
You can have it your way, every Saturday night

Yeah, baby let's get it on
Every day out this week imma try to get you out them clothes
Been runnin through my mind, thinkin bout givin you rounds
Just got a check this month, if you hit me up then it might go down
Boy Imma make your day, better be Rose' in the cup you passing me
Party up in my place and I got you hypin' like it's Saturday
Turn up, turn up, turn up, turn up, do anything you like
Keep puttin' that shit down and every weekend Imma give you time
Give it up like a robbery, whippin it in, flip it and get on top of me
Baby I got your answer, put it on him like his private dancer

Whatever you want, I love it when the weekend comes
However you want, that's when I'm gon give you some
If you make me say, oh oh oh, oh oh oh
You can have whatever you like
Whatever you want
Thirsty Thursdays, seconds on Friday
You can have it your way, every Saturday night

Monday I be patient, dinner reservations
Wake up on Tuesday, feel like you just used me
Wednesday, Thursday movie night
Rush back home to candle lights
What we doin Friday, pop up and surprise me
Saturday is special, Sunday Immo bless you
Ooo la la la, I'm in la la with you

Whatever you want, I love it when the weekend comes
However you want, that's when I'm gon give you some
If you make me say, oh oh oh, oh oh oh
You can have whatever you like
Whatever you want
Thirsty Thursdays, seconds on Friday
You can have it your way, every Saturday night
