

No Emotion

Babyfxce E

(Oh my God, Alec)
(I wonder what the weather's like today)
That's why I keep my gun on me
'Cause something ain't feeling right
Oh

That's why I keep my gun on me
'Cause something ain't feeling right
Can't let a bitch get down on me
That's why I keep my feelings tight
'Cause whatever you do in the dark
It's gon' come to the light
Just swallow all that hurt inside
And pour your pain in a Sprite

She told me that she wanted me and I didn't even want her back
Baby, we can do our thing, ain't gotta have no strings attached
Niggas out here slimy, they'll stab before they have your back
Ghetto angels watching over me and that's no fuckin' cap
Came into this world alone and I'm leaving by myself
Sometimes I just say I'm good so I ain't gotta explain myself
Can't let you get the upper hand, that's why I keep it on my belt
Can't let you take me out the game 'cause I don't know what's after death

That's why I keep my gun on me
'Cause something ain't feeling right
Can't let a bitch get down on me
That's why I keep my feelings tight
'Cause whatever you do in the dark
It's gon' come to the light
Just swallow all that hurt inside
And pour your pain in a Sprite

Slow motion, no emotion
Like he can't shoot, leave him so open
Try me, I'ma leave a nigga soul open
Try me, I'ma leave a nigga soul open
All of my niggas stay posted
Y'all just want to be noticed
I'm just tryna stay focused
This shit ain't magic, got it from nothing like this shit hocus
Niggas catching bullets like Madden, I can't let 'em poke us
And I just started, I can't let 'em take me out my moment
Niggas get happy when they see you at your lowest
Niggas get happy when they see you at your lowest
Niggas get happy when they see you at your lowest

That's why I keep my gun on me
'Cause something ain't feeling right
Can't let a bitch get down on me
That's why I keep my feelings tight
'Cause whatever you do in the dark
It's gon' come to the light
Just swallow all that hurt inside
And pour your pain in a Sprite

Oh

Oh
Oh
