

Don't hit my phone late at night
Don't call me up more than twice
I'm not your thing, not your only confidant ('Fidant, 'fidant)
Don't tell me things change this time
Don't give me problems, give me wine
You can't pretend I'm the only man you want (You want, you want)

Yeah
I used to do backflips to make you happy, I'm not bein' dramatic
I know people form habits but, baby, that's just what happens
When you give your heart and soul into something that you passionate 'bout
I used to love you, now I'm havin' my doubts
Look, I met a lot of girls on the road to becoming rich
But I never had the urge to fuck another bitch
I caught you cheatin' in a hotel room, suckin' another dick
I walk in and you try to hide him and kiss me with dirty lips (Ew)

I wanna love you but I can't no more (No, no, no)
I wanna touch you but I closed that door

Don't hit my phone late at night
Don't call me up more than twice
I'm not your thing, not your only confidant ('Fidant, 'fidant)
Don't tell me things change this time
Don't give me problems, give me wine
You can't pretend I'm the only man you want (You want, you want)

Yeah, yeah
You tried to flip it, always up in my business
Clearly, I'm not the bad guy, you just want my attention
That there's such a difference between him and I (Him and I)
There's such a difference 'tween a Pisces and a Gemini (Gemini)

I wanna love you but I can't no more (No, no, no)
I wanna touch you but I closed that door

Don't hit my phone late at night
Don't call me up more than twice
I'm not your thing, not your only confidant ('Fidant, 'fidant)
Don't tell me things change this time
Don't give me problems, give me wine
You can't pretend I'm the only man you want (You want, you want)
Don't hit my phone late at night
Don't call me up more than twice
I'm not your thing, not your only confidant ('Fidant, 'fidant)
Don't tell me things change this time
Don't give me problems, give me wine
You can't pretend I'm the only man you want (You want, you want)

I wanna love you but I can't no more
I wanna touch you but I closed that door
I wanna love you but I can't no more
I wanna touch you but I closed that door
