

Blind Ambition

Babylon A.D.

Mmm, yeah, yeah, yeah
I'm coming down, baby

Well, I saw her on the playground, first time
A young boy of eight, maybe nine
She held me spellbound, such a rose
She looked at me and my heart just froze
Polka-dotted dress and some braids in her hair
The kind of smile my mom used to wear
Someday, honey, I'll get you, I swear

I'm coming down, down, down, like a freight train
Headed straight for you
I'm going 'round, 'round, 'round like a hurricane
Come on, baby, I want you

I got a blind ambition, burning fire
Lord, have mercy, you're just my kind
Blind ambition, burning fire
Come on now, honey, you're my ambition of love, yeah

Well, the second time I saw her, was a young man
Her hips shaking across my street
Grown into a woman, was my little girl
My mouth watered, my knees got weak
All dressed up and so well-rehearsed
The kind of look my mom would curse
Hey, there, honey, what's for dessert

I'm coming down, down, down, like a freight train
Headed straight for you
I'm going 'round, 'round, 'round like a hurricane
Come on, baby, I want you

I got a blind ambition, burning fire
Lord, have mercy, you're just my kind
Blind ambition, burning fire
Come on now, honey, let me make you mine tonight, babe

Whoo! Alright
Make you mine tonight, baby
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, whoo!

Come on, honey, I won't be rough
I just want a piece of you

I'm coming down, down, down, like a freight train
Headed straight for you
I'm going 'round, 'round, 'round like a hurricane
Come on, baby, I want you

I got a blind ambition, burning fire
Lord, have mercy, you're just my kind
Blind ambition, burning fire
Come on now, honey, let me make you mine

Blind ambition, heart's desire

Fallen angel, heaven's child
Blind ambition, young and wild
Show your treasures, it ain't no crime for me, baby

I got a blind ambition, burning fire
Yeah, yeah, whoo! Ain't no crime for me, baby
Blind ambition, burning fire
Yeah, yeah, oh-whoa, I got a blind ambition

I got a blind ambition
I got a blind ambition, whoo!
I got a blind ambition, baby, yeah
I got a blind ambition
Yeah, yeah, yeah
B-b-b-b-b-b-b-b-b-baby, yeah, yeah!
Ow!
