Overthinking make my day worse
I can't help it, shit, I guess that's just the way my brain wor k
You can't see the love, go spend eight hunnid on a plain shirt
Need a plug on pharmaceuticals like, where's a brave nurse?
It's a mental thing, grinding, I'm talking psychological
Hoodied up with Villain, shit finna get diabolical
Counting numbers up like, how the fuck I fail algebra?
ARP, it got more legs on it than a tarantula

Global now, I caught a flight from Canada to Africa
Why you talking shit working at Wendy's? Tell that spatula
They won't see us coming down they block, tint at the maximum Nineties vixen vibes, this bitch walked in looking like Pamela
Apple Maps' on her period, I had to backstreet it
Out the country sending shots, I guess I'm Van Fleet
You ain't got no brain capacity, thinking our stacks even (Brrt
Fuck some Tiffany, I took my bitch to Van Cleef & Arpels
Sink made of marble, I just winked and she gargled
Twinkle, twinkle, little Cuban link, watch this bitch sparkle
Pop out, sleep him, last thing that he ever felt was startled
World tour vibes, we on the road, I feel like Day and them
Watch the villains win back-to-back, we just like Isaiah 'nem
Shit, we the Bad Boys
Shroom tripping, I done landed on the asteroid
Walk out, water dripping everywhere like Blastoise
Out in Sweden geeking up like, where's the Sad Boys?
Jack Man but I be punching off the Androids
Catch a body boys, they put him on a tabloid

Overthinking make my day worse
I can't help it, shit, I guess that's just the way my brain wor
