

I'll Learn To Fly Tonight

Baccara

You are telling me that I'm a shy girl,
It's plain to see this part of my world isn't yours,
But you don't know, but you don't know the mood that I'm in
Is rhyming
With yours tonight when all those lights are low.

Come close enough, don't mind the shy girl,
I'll show you how this part of my world can be yours,
A certain smile, a certain smile could make it easy
To please me,
It seems to me your love might be worthwhile.

I'll learn to fly tonight (believe me too),
I'll burn the sky tonight (and won't you too?),
Reach for a star that's me and you,
Let's have a midnight honeymoon!
I'll learn to fly tonight (I think it's time),
I might go on and try (to blow your mind)
Tonight I'll learn to fly with you
And fly away!

This night will show what I've been missing,
I'll feel his love to know what love is all about,
Don't ask me why, don't ask me why, I have my reasons
And seasons
To be this way and deal to die tonight.

[2x:]

I'll learn to fly tonight (believe me too),
I'll burn the sky tonight (and won't you too?),
Reach for a star that's me and you,
Let's have a midnight honeymoon!
I'll learn to fly tonight (I think it's time),
I might go on and try (to blow your mind)
Tonight I'll learn to fly with you
And fly away!
