

Be Myself and I

Backyard Babies

I'm a coward, I'm a whore
I'm not a problem to ignore
Guess it all will change someday
I will fight to find my way

I'm a freak and I'm a cunt
I'm not proud of all my stunts
I'm more tired than it seems
But I will fulfill my dreams

I got no feelings, I don't love you
You see everyday I'm gonna burn you
You don't need someone new to break you
Leave while you can or I will make you

I am weak and you are strong
Never ask what I'll become
I got reasons that is wrong
No way you can't come along

Never left what I believe
Even though what I received
Thinking evil minds are pure
Someday I'll walk out through that door

I've got no feelings, I don't love you
You see everyday I'm gonna burn you
You don't need someone new to break you
Leave while you can or I will make you

So you think you can recover
From what you'll discover
I think when you'll become a problem
I will run for cover
I got bad intentions baby
But I've got good obsessions now

I've got no feelings, I don't love you
You see everyday I'm gonna burn you
You don't need someone new to break you
Leave while you can or I will make you

I've got no feelings, I don't love you
You see everyday I'm gonna burn you
You don't need someone new to break you
Leave while you can or I will make you
