

Bombed

Backyard Babies

I dont care what you say `cause Im born to lose
And I dont give a damn if Im a fool for you
Uh! Look out!

All messed up this time `cause Ive been walking round with myse lf
Im just a dead end cruiser didnt mind to use it
Now its happened to me all over again

Somewhere deep inside theres a neon sign
Tells me where to ride, man
When Im bombed out of my mind

I was desperate for a place to put out my cigarette
I found love in the nick of time
And that is something that I really dont have
I dont care if I live or die, man

You wanna come with me
You wanna ride with me
You wanna blow this town
`Cause I aint got time to show you

All my secrets are buried down here
And I will show them if you want me to
A white night space rocket in sight
Its so beautiful with valleys and heights

Somewhere deep inside theres a neon sign
Tells me where to ride, man
When Im bombed out of my mind

I was desperate for a place to put out my cigarette
I found love in the nick of time

I was desperate for a place to put out my cigarette
I found love in the nick of time

And that is something that I really dont have
I dont care if I live or die, man
