

Jucy Lucy

Backyard Babies

Now I wanna tell you a story
About a girl I used to know
She was like a dream come true to me
She was so, so fine
Wanna tell you a story
It's not the one you think it is
And it's all about my town
She lived down by the river
In this old black mans dirty house,
They all think she won't last so long
But thats the problem, baby
See, I wanna be your man tonight

I don't wanna be
I don't wanna be alone

Lyin' on my bedroom floor
And, baby, listen to a dusty radio
Got a bottle of whiskey in front of me
'Cause that's one hell of a good old friend

I don't wanna be
I don't wanna be alone
Do you wanna play
Do you wanna play my dirty games

I live upstairs, baby
So far away from you
You live down under me
But I hear you knocking every god damn night

Do you remember all the flowers
I gave you when you said you were lonely
You're so close but out of reach
So wasting my time on you
I don't mind anymore

I don't wanna be
I don't wanna be alone
Do you wanna play
Do you wanna play my dirty games

I live upstairs, baby
So far away from you
You live down under me
But I hear you knocking every god damn night

Oh, mama, I hear you knocking
Don't turn out the light
'Cause I might come back home to you

I don't wanna be
I don't wanna be alone
Do you wanna play
Do you wanna play my dirty games

I live upstairs, baby

So far away from you
You live down under me
But I hear you knocking every god damn night

I live upstairs, baby
So far away from you
You live down under me
But I hear you knocking every god damn night

I live upstairs, baby
So far away from you
You live down under me
But I hear you knocking every god damn night

I live upstairs, baby
So far away from you
You live down under me
But I hear you knocking every god damn night

She's down and dirty, baby, now
'Cause Jucy Lucy never missed the rollin' train
