

Mirrors (Shall Be Broken)

Backyard Babies

I know you said we'll never be apart
But I'm not gonna keep us together
I know you said no matter what I do

I am gonna keep you forever

Waiting for a reason
Praying for a feeling
Fighting for a way out

Damn you all
Mirrors shall be broken
Words I hear
Never should be spoken
I don't really think you're gonna change
You have been a bastard now
So damn you and all

And when they say you know it is a waste
I guess it wasn't meant to be easy
And when you said it'll never be too late
I know darling, nothing can please me

Waiting for a reason
Praying for a feeling
Fighting for a way out

Damn you all
Mirrors shall be broken
Words I hear
Never should be spoken
I don't really think you're gonna change
You have been a bastard now
So damn you and all
I said, damn you and all

Waiting, praying, fighting...
Damn you all!

Damn you all
Mirrors shall be broken
Words I hear
Never should be spoken
'Cause I don't really think you're gonna change
You have been a bastard now
So damn you and all
I said, damn you and all
