

My Demonic Side

Backyard Babies

I'm in a world of reality but think again cause it's misery how come I feel like I'm on the run turns a boy into man?

Can't get through I'm out in the blue look what you put me through I'm out in the blue

Tell me this would you follow me to hell and back?
Are you living in a broken dream?
I've been hiding my demonic side because the promise were lies

My world's spinning in a roundabout I wake up scared and I scream and shout what kind of man rides a chicken race?
a boy who wants to be a man

Somebody save me you'll never understand you think maybe it's complicated baby what you see is never what you get
