

Never Finish Anythi

Backyard Babies

No solution, no problem!

In every corner of the world
You feel the walls are closing in
You can't describe it
And you don't know where you've been
It's like a dream
You're always lost and somewhere else
But it is time
You take a chance
And make a difference
Because everybody can

Never finish anythi...
Never finish anythi...
Whenever you're around there'll be trouble
Never finish anythi...
Never finish anythi...
Whenever you're around there'll be trouble
Again!
No solution, no problem!
Again!
No solution, no problem!

Turn on the channels
Got a hundred thousand panels
Showing all a glossy view
While reality turns blue
It's like a dream
It's like an action science fiction
horror thriller dama comedy
filled with erotic irony

Never finish anythi...
Never finish anythi...
Whenever you're around there'll be trouble
Never finish anythi...
Never finish anythi...
Whenever you're around there'll be trouble
Again!
No solution, no problem!
Again!
No solution, no problem!

Calling out the ground hogs
Diggin' gold for mad dogs
We're in this race together
And no, it's not a secret
You feeding us with lame hits
Fuck that fuckin' weak shit
We take it back together
And kill it with this quartet

No solution, no problem!

Never finish anythi...
Never finish anythi...

Whenever you're around there'll be trouble
Never finish anythi...
Never finish anythi...
Whenever you're around there'll be trouble
Again!
No solution, no problem!
Again!
No solution, no problem!
Again!
No solution, no problem!
Again!
No solution, no problem!
