

Simple Being Sold

Backyard Babies

Elections going in the sandbox
And my anarchistic rooftop
Masturbating to the latest
New thing
You triple first but losing double
You sign up here, swipe cards, no trouble
You love the whole world wild web bubble
New thing

When simple being sold
Nothing's hot and nothing's cold
You gotta go and read between the lines
When simple being sold

You stream away no trace
Behind you
A million ways to get shit
Undone too
The link is in your DNA

When simple being sold
Nothing's hot and nothing's cold
You gotta go and read between the lines
When simple being sold

But what I really wanna know
Yeah, I really want to know is how low are you willing to go?
You're tough behind them screens
Your weakness by all means
Not as easy as it seems like a dream
Solo

When simple being sold
Nothing's hot and nothing's cold
You gotta go and read between the lines
When simple being sold
Solo

But what I really wanna know
Yeah, I really want to know is how low are you willing to go?
You're tough behind them screens
Your weakness by all means
Not as easy as it seems like a dream
