

Th1rt3en Or Nothing

Backyard Babies

Reach out for the sky again

I'm calling out your name
But I'll be damned if you could hear
A single word I say
Make a wish and dreams come true

It's not just me and you
Mark my words and trust your faith
We start over once again
You wanna rock'n'roll
Bang your head and sell your soul
We're going straight to hell
Thirteen or nothing!
You wanna shake that ass

Over-supersized infinite mass

We're going straight to hell

Thirteen or nothing!

Gang of four, wolfpack whores
Break down, reboot, do right
Black is just a darker form
Of colours we call white
You wanna rock'n'roll
Bang your head and sell your soul

We're going straight to hell
Thirteen or nothing!

You wanna shake that ass
Over-supersized infinite mass

We're going straight to hell
Thirteen or nothing!

You wanna rock'n'roll
Bang your head and sell your soul
We're going straight to hell
Thirteen or nothing!
You wanna shake that ass
Over-supersized infinite mass
We're going straight to hell
Thirteen or nothing!
You wanna rock'n'roll
Bang your head and sell your soul
We're going straight to hell
You wanna shake that ass
Over-supersized infinite mass
We're going straight to hell
Thirteen or nothing!
