

Always on Time

Bad Bad Hats

What do you see when you're looking at me
Am I leaf on the tree or a song on repeat
Cause when I look at you, I could cry at my luck
But you look like the future and I cannot keep up

I'm sorry that my heart keeps running
Like a train rolling on down the line
I'm sorry that my heart keeps running behind

Cause you are always on time
Always on time
I need a second to see just who I'm gonna be
But you are always on, always on time

Sometimes I think I'd be better without
Just the wind at my back and your tears in my mouth
And I'd make some new plans in a place of my own
But it wouldn't be fair and it wouldn't be home without you

I'm sorry that my heart keeps running
Like a train rolling on down the line
I'm sorry that my heart keeps running behind

Cause you are always on time
Always on time
I need a second to see just who I'm gonna be
But you are always on, always on time

I'm sorry that my heart keeps running

Always on time, always on time
Always on time, always on time
I need a second to see just who I'm gonna be
But you are always on, always on time
