Psychic Reader

Bad Bad Hats

When I look at you, I get a good idea
Stay on the line until your voice feels nearer
I was meant for you
Said the psychic reader, yeah
When I look at you, I get a good vibration
Stay on the line until I hit your station
I was meant for you
So I can be patient, yeah

Am I hitting a wall?
Is it nothing at all?
Am I hitting a wall?
Is it nothing?

'Cause I was in the room when you were leaving
It ended too soon when you fought the feeling
I was in the room when you were leaving
It ended too soon when you fought the feeling

When I look at you I get a, get a rush
Stay on the line until I catch the right bus
I was meant for you, isn't it obvious?
Yeah

Am I hitting a wall?
Is it nothing at all?
Am I hitting a wall?
Is it nothing?

'Cause I was in the room when you were leaving
It ended too soon when you fought the feeling
I was in the room when you were leaving
It ended too soon when you fought the feeling
(It ended too soon when you fought the feeling)

Am I hitting a wall?
Is it nothing at all?
Am I hitting a wall?
Is it nothing at all?
Am I hitting a wall?
Is it nothing at all?

'Cause I was in the room when you were leaving
It ended too soon when you fought the feeling
I was in the room when you were leaving
It ended too soon when you fought the feeling

I was in the room when you were leaving
It ended too soon when you fought the feeling
I was in the room when you were leaving
It ended too soon when you fought the feeling

It ended too soon when you fought the feeling
