

Quarter Past

Bad Bad Hats

I follow you to the party where he talks to you hardly
I stand and watch in the corner, I'm your heart's only mourner

At a quarter past one
I'm not having any fun
Stick around to walk you home
You make me feel like I'm alone yeah, yeah

I'm not asking for forever, but I don't want to be left out
I just want you to reach out for me when the night is running out

He says he hopes you're not leaving as you're drinking your feelings
I get sentimental about it as the dance floor gets crowded
'Cause I know you better than that, know you're better than all this useless conversation

At a quarter past one
I'm not having any fun
Stick around like a fool
Will I always be uncool yeah, yeah

I'm not asking for forever, but I don't want to be left out
I just want you to reach out for me when the night is running out

Life gets me scared, I don't know what I'm doing
I want to run, but my legs, they are not moving
Turn out the light 'cause I am so tired of choosing
But I have to do this right

I'm not asking for forever, but I don't want to be left out

Life gets me scared, I don't know what I'm doing
I want to run, but my legs, they are not moving
Turn out the light 'cause I am so tired of choosing
But I can't lose you tonight
