

Super America

Bad Bad Hats

I want a sweet tea and a heart that won't break
If you leave me or pretend I'm not there
I wish you'd let me lose you, I wish you'd cut your hair

Oh, I'm a long way from turning around on the highway
Or calling your phone
Cause it's not my fault that you can't sleep alone

Honey do what I don't have to tell you to
Me and you are acting Super America blue

Say you won't bite and I'll file my nails and wear my jeans tight
Someday I'll call you back
Cause I want you more than I want the things you lack

Honey do what I don't have to tell you to
Me and you are acting Super America blue
Honey be the better part of me
You could hold me tight in the Super America light

I want a sweet tea and a heart that won't break
I want an Icee a nice boy to date
I want a Pepsi and heart that won't break
I want a Reese's and a nice boy to date
