

Hold On Wait A Minute

Bad Boy Chiller Crew

Still got that same damn number
Girl, I fell down under
She defends like you won't believe
Ain't tryna stay 'round trouble
She can feel like a stunner
I guess that girl got a hold of me

So hold on wait a minute
Like who the fuck you kiddin'
I hope you see the monster
When you look into the mirror
All I see is tunnel vision
Heartbroken and I'm feelin'
I've been around the world
A thousand girls up in my DM

So hold on wait a minute
You've burnt so many bridges
I told you that I love you
I don't think you know the meanin'
Really thought that you was winnin'
You pushed me to the limit
I'm tired of lies, I tried to-tryed to make time but you didn't

I've been tryna hold on, hold on, wait a minute
When my soul gone, my soul gone
I've been tryna hold on, hold on, wait a minute
When my soul gone, my soul gone

Still got that same damn number
Girl, I fell down under
She defends like you won't believe
Ain't tryna stay 'round trouble
She can feel like a stunner
I guess that girl got a hold of me

Okay, let's go
Yeah she watch, she know I get that girl
Don't work still, I'm alone
Got no game but don't answer
When she calls, still I don't know
I'm so caught up for the thought
I knew you guess I really thought to my mind
You told my soul
I think it's time you hit the road

You told me lies and I believed it
I've been fighting all these demons
While you find another reason I should go
Leave me heartbroken and I feel it
Left behind you from the ceilin'
You should know

I've been tryna hold on, hold on, wait a minute
When my soul gone, my soul gone
I've been tryna hold on, hold on, wait a minute
When my soul gone, my soul gone

Still got that same damn number
Girl, I fell down under
She defends like you won't believe
Ain't tryna stay 'round trouble
She can feel like a stunner
I guess that girl got a hold of me

Hey there girl! How's it been?
Ain't spoke in a while
I guess it's safe to say I changed my ways
I'm out here living life
I try to break away
Change my name
150 on the dial
But then I'd give you everything
I'd walk a thousand miles

Before I loved you, I loved you
I thought you could be the one
If you never broke my heart
I'll probably put you in a song
Before I loved you I loved you
I thought you could be the one
I never took my own advice
This love, she's over price

So hold on wait a minute
Like who the fuck you kiddin'
I hope you see the monster
When you look into the mirror
All I see is tunnel vision
Heartbroken and I'm feelin'
I've been around the world
A thousand girls up in my DM

So hold on wait a minute
You've burnt so many bridges
