

Stepping Stone

Bad Boy Chiller Crew

I take two steps forward, then one step back
You play with my emotions, I don't like it like that
I take two steps forward, then one step back
My stepping stone, you're my stepping stone

Yo, shit, I don't feel bad, I don't wanna fight no more
This ship gon' sink, better sound the horn
Real shit, you win, it's a [?] path
Don't cry, you lied every time before
Oh, another heartbreak, girl, that's just my luck
'Cause you had my trust till I called your bluff
Girl, we could have been set in stone
Now you're nothing but a stepping stone
So it's on to the next
I left it all in a text, and you called
Girl, I beg, girl, I've thoughts in my head, I'm stressed
We ain't never talking again, never more than good friends
Girl, it's all for the best, I guess
I just wanna see better days, give me a reason to change
Got me feeling like I lost myself
Look at the cards I've been dealt
We're S.O.S., come help

Yo, feeling like I sold my soul, broken home
Ingested a drug, I'ma overdose
Row the boat, try to float
Be right back, gonna hit the vault

Show one love, get swept aside
We could have been set in stone
Now you're nothing but a stepping stone

I take two steps forward, then one step back
You play with my emotions, I don't like it like that
I take two steps forward, then one step back
My stepping stone, you're my stepping stone

Every night I close my eyes
Baby, you're not the only one that's on my mind
When it gets late, I fantasize
Baby, you're not the only one that's on my mind

Yo, I swear that girl will be the death of me
I guess shit just ain't meant to be
She a bad vibe, bad energy
I don't see the love or the chemistry
I don't want her lies and the jealousy
I don't wanna fight with the enemy
'Cause she's nuts, left her for dust
Now I'm in the club, let me liven it up
Put the drinks on her tab
Yo, she wants the glitz and the glam
She wants the matching kicks with her bag
She wants some new tea for the new rap
She want the keys for the whip and the gaff
She want her flights all over the map
She knows she's bad, but I ain't taking nobody back

Me and you done, that's final
Trip overseas, I'ma hide out

Yo, feeling like I sold my soul, broken home
Ingested a drug, I'ma overdose
Row the boat, try to float
Be right back, gonna hit the vault

Show one love, get swept aside
Could have been set in stone
Now you're nothing but a stepping stone

I take two steps forward, then one step back
You play with my emotions, I don't like it like that
I take two steps forward, then one step back
My stepping stone, you're my stepping stone
