

Why Did You Play Me

Bad Boy Chiller Crew

It's the same scenario we've been here before
You have to board your ship and you're walking out the door
No explanation, no conversation
You're bugging out and I'm losing my patience
You walk away and I, I pull you back and I
I think it's time that we made up high

'Cause I really wanna be with you, I can't go back, oh
I'm not asking to marry me, just show me some support
When you were down and out, and I was there for you
Don't thank you, don't have proof, only execute
This time it's going on

Why did you play me? Why did you play me?
You never leave me
Said you'd never leave me (said you never leave)
Why did you play me? Why did you play me?
You never leave me

Found my father, please forgive her
He scared my life when she got his son
That's my girl, my boy, my queen
She did things you won't believe
I'm gonna be that G, trust don't mean a thing
Got my heart, got my soul, got my freedom
I'm still the best I thought from the start
I just got left with a broken heart
No fucking deliver, tripping like Eva
Some these guys season, feeling like freedom

Feeling like I lost myself, SOS come help
I see no future, I thought I knew you
How can I stay? I ain't gonna play your games
Get the fuck out my face
You could never deal with the jealousy
You turned a friend to an element

(Why did you play me?) I never played you 'cause you played yourself
Play games I ain't waiting for
Said that you'll never leave
Oops, that's mine, but that's my fault
That was the last straw for the back door

If I'm in time with you mid time I see you shine
I don't wanna front and tell you lies
I don't wanna play games, baby, I got pride
I can see it in your face, you ain't by my side
Horoscope, baby, there's no trust
I can see it from the jump, you can call my bluff
Even though you're looking all amazing
I can see the flames in your eyes, really crazy

Throw my spot, look in my bust and get my love
We always fighting bout the same old stuff
I might tell you how it is, baby, I don't front
And there's no trust no more, I don't think we're gonna change shit
Baby, face it, we just went and faded

Always had your back but now we're packing up our cases
I can see the writing on the wall, really rains
Really pause, don't expect me to call, now I moved on

Why did you play me? Why did you play me?
You never leave me
Said you'll never leave me (said you never leave)
Why did you play me? Why did you play me?
You never leave me

Why did you play me? Why did you play me?
You never leave me
Said you'll never leave me (said you'll never leave)
Why did you play me? Why did you play me?
You never leave me
