

Join The Bad Boys Blue

Bad Boys Blue

Do you wanna party on a Saturday night?
All you gotta be is hungry and loud.
Do you wanna feel that everybody's all right?
Come on, baby, we will rock and shout.

Gotta join the Bad Boys Blue.
And tonight we're rockin' and we're rollin' with you.
Here we are: the Bad Boys Blue.
Baby, we're not fakin' we're just breakin' the rules.
Will you keep the world on turning?
So come on, join the Bad Boys Blue.

Do you wanna leave? -just feel the heat of the night.
Don't let anybody get you down.
Do you wanna win? - you gotta fight for the right.
Keep the world on turning 'round and 'round.

Gotta join the Bad Boys Blue.
And tonight we're rockin' and we're rollin' with you.
Here we are: the Bad Boys Blue.
Baby, we're not fakin' we're just breakin' the rules.
Will you keep the world on turning?
So come on, join the Bad Boys Blue.

Don't you ever ask yourself to whom you belong.
Gotta listen to your heart and soul.
Don't you even try to understand what goes on.
There are things in life you can't control.

Gotta join the Bad Boys Blue.
And tonight we're rockin' and we're rollin' with you.
Here we are: the Bad Boys Blue.
Baby, we're not fakin' we're just breakin' the rules.
Will you keep the world on turning?
So come on, join the Bad Boys Blue.
