

You're The Reason

Bad Boys Blue

Dream. The everlasting dream.
As long as you are free.
A love is a magic little thing.
Day after day. Time's running out.
I'm so lonely there's no doubt.
My love - hear what I say.

You are the reason for my life.
Now and forever hold me tight.
And no one else should ever do.
Be mine now. It's no time to say goodbye.
Tell me the truth and please don't lie.
I'm tired of waiting and feeling blue.
Soon tears on my pillow show me I'm so sad and blue.
Some dream. Dreaming of you never come true.

Love. An everlasting love.
And this time long enough.
Love is a magic little thing.
Time after time you're checking out.
If you're lonely scream it out.
My love - hear what I say.

You are the reason for my life.
Now and forever hold me tight.
And no one else should ever do.
Be mine now. It's no time to say goodbye.
Tell me the truth and please don't lie.
I'm tired of waiting and feeling blue.
Soon tears on my pillow show me I'm so sad and blue.
Some dream. Dreaming of you never come true.
