Desert highway to a memory, I said that I'd come back for you By the jukebox at the starlight grill, kickin' out an Elvis tun e

Are you waitin', little sister, killin' time and dreamin' too You need a fraction of long distance love, I'm driving all nigh t for you, yeah

I'm gonna be there in a big way, you can leave the radio on Like an outlaw, like Jesse James, another hundred miles is gone Sunrise to sundawn, I'm gonna turn you around, yeah

Baby I've been so lonely, what am I s'pposed to do Out in the sun with passion, out of my head for you Baby my heart's a mustang, just let it run its course Take it up by the river, I'm gonna give you more

Ride the rockin' horse, hey, ride the rockin' horse, yeah Got the top down, wishin' on a star, underneath the Spanish moo n

Golden Earring on the radio, radar love is coming through She's a station on the interstate, I'm coming with a message of love

In the saddle, you can ride all night, rock your reins around m y glove, yeah

Sunrise to sundawn, I'm gonna turn you around, yeah Baby I've been so lonely, what's a man s'pposed to do Out in the sun with passion, out of my head for you Proof papa's got the fever, just let it run its course Take it up by the river, I'm gonna give you more

Ride the rockin' horse, hey, ride the rockin' horse

Baby I've been so, baby I've been so, baby I've been so lonely (Ride the rockin' horse) Lo-lo-lo-lo-lonely, lonely, yeah Baby I've been so, out of my head for you, whoah (ride the rock in' horse)

Baby I've been so lonely, baby baby baby (ride the rockin' hors e)

Babe I've been so lonely, what am I gonna do, thank you New Yor k

(Ride the rockin' horse) (repeats out)
