

Hostiles On The Hill

Bad Lip Reading

Hey Dak, you got that backing track?
Turn it on
Oh yeah
Go ahead pump it up
Uh

I'd love to catch a firefly that's far away
I see your whole crew staring as I put this beat down
You're like a soup can
I'm like Superman
I saw Veronica, the girl that put you off blast 'cause you played harmonica in art class
I know you want her too
But you don't move cause you don't have any shoes
You touch a pom-pom
I touch an A-bomb
Mm! Aw yeah

Twenty nights in the ice is a long time
When there's hostiles on the hill
It's not about what they want
You just gotta walk your walk
Twenty nights in the ice is a long time
When there's hostiles on the hill
It's not about what you wear
It's all about where you are

Look it's a bad guy

Don't worry about it Darius
'Cause I'm a mile high and I'm the scariest

I ride so hard I got you trippin'
You seein' how I'm flowing not drippin'

I think you're trippin' dog

I'll pour sauce all up on your very nice pants
I like romance
You can't dance
Heart attack on deck, ain't gotta chance
Kinda bright out, think I'll put your lights out

Twenty nights in the ice is a long time
When there's hostiles on the hill
It's not about what they want
You just gotta walk your walk
Twenty nights in the ice is a long time
When there's hostiles on the hill
It's not about what you wear
It's all about where you are

I wish I wasn't so dang sweet
So dang sweet
So dang sweet
I wish I wasn't so dang sweet

You are like cinnamon

I wish I wasn't so dang sweet
So dang sweet
So dang sweet
I wish I wasn't so dang sweet

You are like cinnamon

Hey guys, what you doin'?

Avoiding death

Come again?

I'm avoiding death

And I'm really freaking thinking somebody's gonna shoot me

You'll be good bro

I just wanna see a tree

And you will

Aah! No I won't

Shame he won't be at the barbecue
Then again, I guess he is a barbecue
Technically, my lies are probably true
Tell your mama not to burn my shoes

Sassy bad guy, what do you want to say?
Before my friend pulls your legs away
'Cause pretty soon you'll literally be trippin'

Here comes a hot poker

What we do is
Wrap it, wrap it round, round
Then we make it fall down

You are like cinnamon

I wish I wasn't so dang sweet
So dang sweet
So dang sweet

What we do is
Wrap it, wrap it round, round
Then we make it fall down

You are like cinnamon

Twenty nights in the ice is a long time
When there's hostiles on the hill
It's not about what they want
You just gotta walk your walk
Twenty nights in the ice is a long time
When there's hostiles on the hill
It's not about what you wear
It's all about where you are

Hey see if you can give it more bass
Hey
Where's the music?
Ugh, Dak is dead
I wish I wasn't so dang sweet
So dang sweet
So dang sweet
It's not about what they want
You just gotta walk your walk
I wish I wasn't so dang sweet
So dang sweet
So dang sweet
It's not about what you wear
It's all about where you are
Dak?
Hey guys, I think Dak is a zombie

Really? What do you mean?

I mean he's a freakin' zombie

But wait, didn't your ship just get shot?

Yes but... zombie

That is terrible

Yeah, you think?

You are like cinnamon
