

Monster Run

Bad Lip Reading

Yeah, first they fall through the trees
And then you know they pull you down into the leaves
Until you're dead
They got me trembling, ohh
Now I'm pedaling my bike to get away
But I've been caught
They lurk around around your bed
You know they lie underneath but
They break into your world every night
Can you see the monster with your skin?
Now it's prowling about again
Yet it's hiding outside the light

It's a spooky thing to see your rug has a bump
Take an axe and bust that spooky stuff all night
I think there's a lot of zombies where we'll die
Oh oh it's a monster, run

Away
Away
Ohh it's a monster, run
Away
Away
Ohh it's a monster run

Yes they know all the grimmer things
Like how to cut your soul out
They wrap around my body
Oh that was my bones
Now they're liquid dominoes
A tentacle up my nose
And now get ready for the best part

A zibbadee doobadee day
Who will exit and who will stay?
I wanna text you when I do cry
'Cus my hand is a crispy chunk
I want a dollar, I'm gonna rip it
Let me tie you up in this crypt
You're in the darkness
And surrounded by ghosts
I see them and I need to go

I could be a bad guy
Or just a sad guy
I met the evil architect in the night
The dark and prickly tongue
Twin tentacles so long
They can hang your spine on the backyard tree
Next they bite my cheek and then they crawl inside of my brain
Then I catch the pizza boy and he just goes insane

Now you need to run (run)
Away (run)
Away (run)
Ohh it's a monster, run (run)
Away (run)

Away (run)

They stand in my road
They line their palms with cheetah coats
They want to steal my soul
I wish I could not hear their weird annoying moaning
You can't see my lines
I could be singing poppycock
You'll have to take my word
And just trust me that I'm not

You should be afraid
Run
Run away
Yeah that's what I say
Ohh it's a monster, run (run)
Away (run)
Away (run)
Ohh it's a monster, run

I think I'm fading
I've fallen down help me
Run
