

Mad Mind

Bad Nerves

Bored alive
Nothing to love, nothing to worship
I need something else
Mad in my mind, I need you now
I need you now, now, everyday (oh!)

Long ago, a kid and his heart, a beat lost in the rain
All this time makes you old
But I live in the blurs, I wish that you were here

Mad in my mind, I need you now, I need you now
Now, mad in my mind
I need you now, I need you na-na
I need you na-na, I need you now

Bored alive
Nothing to feel, nothing to follow
Drunk in your teens
Learning to love, you and me forever
Can I only exist as your best memory? (Best memory)
Oh, if the record don't play, am I no longer here?

You will soon be dead, yeah I know, but I don't mind
You will soon be dead, uh-oh, you blinked your eye
You will soon be dead, and maybe, God's a lie?
You will soon be dead, uh-oh, you blinked your eye

Mad in my mind
I need you now, I need you now, now
Mad in my mind
I need you now, I need you na-na
I need you na-na, I need you now
