

Reprise (The Sound of the End)

Bad Omens

I want to feel love
I want to feel love again

I guess you never really know yourself
Because I've never been the kind to ask for help
I'm begging for this
I'm begging for this
Alleviation from all of the ugly shit

Wake me up
Wake me up

There's a thousand voices in my head
I just hope it doesn't take a rope around my neck
To put them all to rest
I want to feel love
I want to feel love again

I feel the filth, yeah, the dirt on my skin
Everyone can see it and they know where I've been
God as my witness
The devil as my friend
I swear that this is the sound of the end

This is the sound of the end
Thousand voices in my head
I just hope it doesn't take a rope around my neck
To put them all to rest
I want to feel love
