

Just to Feel Your Touch

Bad Suns

I know that we can get through this
Let the shadow of uncertainty make way for bliss, whoa-oh-oh
Can't say it won't be dangerous
If we end up on the other side, it's worth the risk, whoa-oh-oh

Open your heart
Let down your guard
I'll never stop
I will keep

Fanning the flames in the throes of love
I deal with the pain just to feel your touch
I love you, I hate you, I miss you
If you say nothing's wrong, then nothing's wrong
Then what's the issue?

Down to the wire, but we won't give up
How close to the fire is close enough?
I love you, I hate you, I miss you
If you say nothing's wrong, then nothing's wrong
Then what's the issue?

There's magic in your fingertips
Wouldn't be so bad to drown if I could taste your lips, whoa-oh-oh
Breathe life into me with your kiss
Or take my breath away, yeah, you could sink this ship, whoa-oh-oh

Open your heart
Let down your guard
I'll never stop
I will keep

Fanning the flames in the throes of love
I deal with the pain just to feel your touch
I love you, I hate you, I miss you
If you say nothing's wrong, then nothing's wrong
Then what's the issue?

Down to the wire, but we won't give up
How close to the fire is close enough?
I love you, I hate you, I miss you
If you say nothing's wrong, then nothing's wrong
Then what's the issue?

Fanning the flames
I deal with the pain
I love you, I hate you, I miss you
If you say nothing's wrong, then nothing's wrong
Then what's the issue?
